

REFERENCE LETTER
Of Educational Center Bell Education

Agropolychim JSC has issued this Reference Letter to confirm our collaboration with Bell Education Ltd. on conducting language trainings of our company's employees.

Our collaboration work with the team of Bell Education Ltd. began in 2016. We organise language training for our employees as well as annual evaluation of staff's language skill with their assistance.

By dint of working with them, we receive adequate and competent service that corresponds to our specific needs. The tutors are specialists with high qualifications and professional experience. They work with hearty aspiration and make the necessary efforts to achieve top results.

Participants evaluate the training as effective and see progress and greater confidence in their skills to communicate and use the language during daily tasks at work.

We recommend Bell Education Ltd. As a reliable partner, working qualitatively and responsibly. We continue our collaborative work in the future.
